THE SAINTS' KNOWLEDGE OF CHRIST'S LOVE ; or, The unsearchable riches of Christ, on Eph. iii. 18, 19.	43
Prefatory Remarks by the Editor .....	1
The sorely afflicted are comforted with the fore-ordination of all things by their heavenly Father ; the words, BREADTH, LENGTH, DEPTH, and HEIGHT unlimited to wonderment. First , The reasons of these words ; and, Second , Their fulness. First , BREADTH, The unsearchable greatness of God ; beyond all created bounds ; all for the profit of his saints ; breadth beyond all our sins ; the rage of men and of devils. Second , LENGTH, Further than the ends of the world ; God has a long arm, to reach backsliders. Third , DEPTH, Beyond our sinkings ; under all miry places ; deeper than hell. Fourth , HEIGHT, Higher than giants or walls, or fallen angels ; than heaven is from the grave ; the extent of sin and misery man could never get over, but all power is in Christ.....	4
THE APOSTLE'S PRAYER FOR THE EPHESIANS IN REFERENCE TO THESE WORDS—To be able to comprehend these mercies ; mysterious ; God lays blessings where we would not ; they are to be discerned ; difficult for weak eyes ; benefits of knowing God's power ; if HE is our God, what can we fear ; it begets holy reverence ; willingness to submit ; shows the greatness of the saints' treasure in heaven ; certainty of judgment ; creates love of heaven .....	10
SECOND PART OF THE TEXT.
AND TO KNOW THE LOVE OF CHRIST, WHICH PASSETH KNOWLEDGE.— First , Of the love of Christ. Second , Of the exceeding greatness of it. Third , Of the knowledge of it .....
First , Of the love of Christ.— First , Who Christ is. Second , What love is. Third , What the love of Christ is.—1. This made known by his dying for us.—2. By his improving of his dying for us .....	15
Second , Of the exceeding greatness of Christ's love.— First , It passes the knowledge of the wisest saints. Second , Passeth the knowledge of all the saints. Third , Of the saints in heaven. Fourth , Of angels.—Four reasons why these riches are unsearchable, and that love is such as passeth knowledge.....	22
Third , Of the knowledge of Christ's love—WHAT KNOWLEDGE OF CHRIST'S LOVE IS ATTAINABLE IN THIS WORLD.— First , We may know the nature of it ; free, divine, heavenly, everlasting, incorruptible ; four helps to this knowledge. Second , We may know the degrees of it ; three things by which we may know the degrees of this love. Thirdly , Our greatest attainment is to know that it passeth knowledge ; the Christian's rehaboth , &c.....	27
THE USES—1. It shows the good will of God to us.—2. It becomes us to search into it.—3. To cast ourselves upon it.—4. Not to abuse it.—5. Labour to improve it.—Five counsels .....	35

Bunyan's Preface .....	85
There shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.—Acts xxiv. 15.
This doctrine carried Paul through temptation and affliction, and kept him separate ; inquire, First , What is meant by the dead. Second , What is meant by the resurrection. Third , Why the apostle doth here speak of the resurrection of the dead as of a thing yet to come.
First , The dead, in Scripture, under a fivefold consideration.—1. Dead by nature.—2. Dead by sin.—3. Twice dead.—4. Dead to sin.—5. Eternal death. Second , What is meant by the resurrection ; it is the resurrection of the body ; of the bodies both of the just and unjust ; this promised to the fathers ; began to be fulfilled in the resurrection of the body of Christ ; not, therefore, the new birth or resurrection from a state of nature to one of grace. Third , The resurrection spoken of as a thing yet to come, not already enjoyed either by saints or sinners ; this resurrection spoken of by Job xiv. 12.....	86
First , THE RESURRECTION OF THE JUST.— First , Must rise, because Christ is risen. Second , Because the body of the saints, as well as their soul, is the purchase of Christ. Third , Because the body is the temple of the Holy Ghost. Fourth , Because of the similitude that must be between the body of Christ and the bodies of the saints. Fifth , Because the body as well as the soul has been a deep sharer in afflictions for the gospel's sake. Sixth , The bodies of the just must rise, else there will be a disappointment.—1. The will of God.—2. The power of God.—3. Of Christ.—4. Of the just, already dead.—5. Of the saints yet alive.—6. Of the grace of God

in our souls. Seventh , Because of the devilish and satanical errors that would follow the denial thereof.—Seven reasons on this head .....	87
SECOND, THE MANNER OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE JUST —How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? answered, First , By a similitude of seed. Second , Threemoresimilitudes.—1. Variety and glory of flesh.—2. Difference between heavenly and earthly bodies.—3. Difference between the glory and light of the sun and of the moon, and of the stars. Third , More distinctly branched out in four particulars.—1. Raised in incorruption.—2. Raised in glory.—3. Raised in power.—4. Raised a spiritual body .....	91
THIRD, THE JUDGMENT OF THE JUST —They must give account of all things they have done in the world, whether they be good or bad.— First , Of all their bad — First , That the wood, hay, stubble, which they may have built on the foundation may be consumed. Second , Their infirmities will be laid open, that their love may be heightened. SECOND, Of all the good and holy actions and deeds they did do in the world. — First , Ministers who have sincerely laboured in word and doctrine shall be recompensed. Second , The more private saints will be rewarded for their labour of love; and, Third , There will be a reward for those afflictions endured for Christ while in the world. Fourth , A reward for the more private works of Christianity .....	97
FOURTH, THE REWARD OF THE JUST —That with which they shall be rewarded.— First , They that have laboured most for God here will have the greatest portion of God there. Second , All they have done for God, his work, or ways, will be proclaimed to their honour. Third , They shall each have the place appointed for them at the right or left hand of Christ .....	101
THE SECOND PART OF THE TEXT.
FIRST, THE RESURRECTION OF THE WICKED —This proved and made evident.— First , From the very terms and names that the raised shall then go under. Second , The body of the ungodly must rise, because a partaker with the soul in wickedness. Third , The whole man must be a vessel of wrath and destruction. Fourth , The forbearance of God to his enemies doth clearly bespeak a resurrection of the ungodly. Fifth , The preparation God hath made demonstrates that the wicked must rise.—Five particulars on this head. Sixth , There must be a resurrection of the wicked, because of the errors that would flow from a denial thereof.....	104
SECOND, THE MANNER OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE WICKED — First , They shall come forth in their corruption. Second , It will be a resurrection of dishonour. Third , They will rise in weakness and astonishment. Fourth , They shall rise mere lumps of sinful nature .....	108
THIRD, THE EXAMINATION AND JUDGMENT OF THE WICKED —The judgment set; the books opened.— First , The book of the creatures. Second , The book of God's remembrance. Third , The book of the law; three witnesses to the transgression of the law—1. God.—2. Conscience.—3. The thoughts of the heart. Fourth , The book of life; three things by which they will be judged out of this book.....	108
FOURTH, THE SENTENCE AND PUNISHMENT OF THE WICKED —Depart from me, ye cursed; this word, depart, looks two ways; depart from heaven, depart to hell; these shall go away; the end now come; the end of the reign of death; God, Christ, the saint, and the sinner in their proper place; a brief touch on the state of the good and bad after this eternal judgment .....	125
SOME GOSPEL TRUTHS OPENED ACCORDING TO THE SCRIPTURES ; or, The divine and human nature of Christ Jesus; his coming into the world; his righteousness, death, resurrection, ascension, intercession, and second coming to judgment, plainly demonstrated and proved.		129

Bunyan to the Reader .....		216
The discourse on Luke xviii. 10–13; the reason of the parable, like that of the unjust judge, was to this end, that men ought always to pray; we must, FIRST, CONSIDER THE PERSONS IN THE TEXT —Two; both sinners; one a pharisee, the other a publican; both went up to the temple to pray; picked men; a Pharisee, in esteem; a Publican, counted vile; he was a Jew and a notorious sinner; the Pharisee was a Jew, and notorious as a saint; the conditions they were in shown by their prayers .....		217
THE PHARISEE'S PRAYER —1. What he is not.—2. What he is; negative and positive holiness required; both imperfect; his manner of delivery .....		222

	PAGE
His righteousness rejected; he asks justice and not mercy; he asks for what he thinks God oweth him; the hypocrite pretends for mercy, but means for merit.....	229
The Pharisee seeth no need of mercy; what a fool's paradise; his whole righteousness, sinful .....	237
The godly are afraid of their own righteousness; the Pharisee ignorant that he must be made righteous before he can work righteousness.....	242
What is a Christian's righteousness to justification and sanctification .....	246
They were sinners, and are made righteous .....	256
THE PUBLICAN'S PRAYER—He crawls into the temple; his words are heavier than the earth; his confession; the highest wisdom .....	258
Seven things needful to right confession; a hard duty; seven reasons for it .....	261
His imploring of mercy; he falleth under the sentence; his gestures, afar off, leaving room for his advocate to come between; looking down; smiting his breast, a token of sorrow and abhorrence; a quarrel with his heart .....	265
THE CONCLUSION—1. A praying man outstrips a non-praying one, as a star does a clod; but all praying men know not God.—2. He who pleads his own good deeds is in a miserable state.—3. I high flaunting language is not prayer.—4. Outward reforms do not justify.—5. The self-abhorring sinner's prayers prevail .....	276
A DEFENCE OF THE DOCTRINE OF JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST; showing, that true gospel holiness flows from thence; or, Mr. Fowler's pretended design of Christianity proved to be nothing more than to trample under foot the blood of the Son of God.
Editor's Advertisement .....	278
A premonition to the reader; Fowler's doctrines described in forty particulars; from prison the 27th of 12th month, 1671 .....	280
Mr. Fowler exposeth the rottenness of his heart; his design; to justify what he calls inward righteousness and holiness—1st, Its nature, a sound complexion of soul; purity of nature, an original dictate of nature; these things argued and answered.....	281
Motives, becoming and just; a Christian acts from better motives; things essential to holiness—1. The Holy Ghost.—2. Faith in Christ.—3. A new heart .....	283
Mr. Fowler's design of Christianity, to reproduce man's original righteousness, confuted; his errors routed .....	291
Fowler's false quotations of Scripture.....	297
Our Lord's object, not to restore our natural holiness, but to impart his infinite and eternal holiness to believers .....	300
Man in wretched uncertainty, if he had no better than Adam's holiness; Christ a new and spiritual light .....	307
Living faith in imputed righteousness essential to salvation .....	314
The Bible the only standard of truth; the Christian's great principles.....	318
The scandalous lives and foolish doctrines of state priests, not the true ground of dissent; a compliant temper dangerous.....	323

VI. Whether to be reprobated be the same with being appointed beforehand unto eternal condemnation? If not, how do they differ? Also, whether reprobation be the cause of condemnation .....	342
VII. Whether any, under eternal reprobation, have just cause to quarrel with God for not electing of them .....	345
VIII. Whether eternal reprobation in itself, or in its doctrine, be, in very deed, a hinderance to any man in seeking the salvation of his soul .....	346
IX. Whether God would, in deed and in truth, that the gospel with the grace thereof, should be tendered to those that yet he hath bound up under eternal reprobation? Answered in the affirmative .....	348
X. Seeing then that the grace of God in the gospel is by that to be proffered to sinners, as sinners, as well to the reprobate as to the elect, is it possible for those who indeed are not elect, to receive it, and be saved? Answered in the negative.....	349
XI. Seeing that it is not possible that the reprobate should receive this grace and live; and also, seeing this is infallibly foreseen of God; and again, seeing God hath fore-determined to suffer it so to be, why doth he yet will and command that the gospel, and so grace in the general tenders thereof, should be proffered unto them? Answered and cleared by five reasons, and the removing three objections.....	352
QUESTIONS ABOUT THE NATURE AND PERPETUITY OF THE SEVENTH-DAY SABBATH; and proof that the first day of the week is the Christian Sabbath.

FIRST, EXHORTATION—THAT MEN DEPART FROM INIQUITY.		Sins which interfere with these duties; covetousness, pride, uncleanness.....	566
First , Because iniquity is a dangerous and hurtful thing to men in general.—1. It hath stupified and besotted men's souls.—2. It has blinded and darkened the powers of the soul.—3. It has hardened the heart against God.—4. It has alienated the will, the mind, and affections.—5. It has made man odious in God's eyes.—6. It so holds him and binds him that he cannot deliver himself; nor yet can the angels of heaven.—7. It makes him take delight in that way to hell in which he walketh. ....		III. The believer must maintain good works..... 570	570
Second , Iniquity is dangerous not only to the souls of men in general, but to them that name the name of Christ.—1. It plucks many a one of them from Christ, and a religious profession of him.—2. It keeps many a one from an effectual closing with him.—3. Baptism of the Spirit the great baptism.....	624	Some closing words; Christ alone can save us from allurements, and in sore temptations; will you bring your wife and children to beggary for religion; he will make a way for escape; he will support us in the blasts and battering storms that beat upon us; the soul shall not be destroyed.....	733
Water baptism is not regeneration; Christ was not regenerated by it; the want of it does not unchristianize us; edification greater than water baptism; infant baptism a sin; fourteen arguments answered.....	626	USES—1. The people of God are sufferers for their religion.—2. Seek grace to prepare for suffering.—3. Religion is none the worse for the world's coarse entertainment.—4. Suffering for religion a token of God's love.—5. Take it with meekness.—6. God is all-sufficient.—7. The grave the only bound of suffering.—8. If the enemy wrap thee in a bear's skin, and set the dogs at thee, no marvel.—9. Study to be quiet.....	736
Mr. H. Jesse's judgment.....	642	Seven considerations for an unquiet professor.....	738

 ‘ Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.’—Ep. iv. 3..... 743

BUNYAN’S LAST SERMON.
 ‘ Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.’—
 Jn. i. 13.

The text explained ; not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh ..... 755
The doctrine ; they are born to see and believe ;
before birth they are in darkness ; the signs of life ;
new-born babe must be fed, comforted ; has its father’s likeness ; trained up ; dependence upon its father... 756
The application ; am I born of God ? risen with Christ ? if so, live lovingly with your brethren ; gird up the loins of your mind ; be obedient to the holy God whom you hope is your Father..... 757
